After Slaying Girl, Priest Cut

River—Attempts Suicide

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—With the arrest Sunday of the Rev. Hans Schmidt, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, charged with the murder of Anna Ammer, a domestic, the mystery surrounding the finding of parts of the dismembered body of a girl in the Hudson river was solved. Schmidt, according to the police reports, confessed and at the time the confession was made he attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a safety razor blade. "I killed her because I loved her so much," Schmidt is alleged to have told his captors; but the police version of the motive for the crime is that the priest was about to become a father. He had married her through a ceremony of his own performing, without witnesses.

KILLED WHILE SHE SLEPT.
According to the police and the district attorney's office, Schmidt's confession was full and complete. In his confession he said that he had killed the girl while she was sleeping in the rooming house where he was living. He had cut her body into six pieces and dropped each piece into the Hudson river. He also attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a safety razor blade.

When her heart had ceased beating, according to the police, Schmidt took the girl's body to the bathroom and cut it into six pieces. He then dropped each piece into the Hudson river. He also attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a safety razor blade.

THE MARRIAGE OF THE priest and the girl was a secret one. Schmidt had been living with the girl for some time before he married her. The marriage was performed by Schmidt himself, without any witnesses.

HOKE SMITH PLAN FOR EXCHANGES TO SUBSTITUTE CLARK'S

Satisfactory Assurances Received That Plan of Georgia Senator Will Be Adopted by
Conferees Soon

WOULD PREVENT BURDEN FALLING ON FARMERS

New Plan Would Eliminate
Worst Evils of Exchanges,
Yet Be of Great Benefit to Business and Planters

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Along with the announcement today by Speaker Clark that the conference report on the tariff bill will be ready for consideration Friday came satisfactory assurances that Senator Hoke Smith's plan for regulating the cotton exchange would be accepted by the conferees, in lieu of the Clarke amendment. It is understood that the house conferees headed by Underwood are committed to the Smith scheme, and it is confidently believed that the senate conferees will accept it.

It is believed that the practical effect of the enactment into law of Senator Smith's plan will be to increase the price of cotton approximately half a cent a pound.

The Clark amendment, which the house adopted, taxed all cotton futures contracts approximately 50 per cent of a cent a pound, and it was feared that this tax would be so heavy that it would drive the cotton exchange out of business.

Under the Smith amendment, the tax on cotton futures contracts is reduced to 10 per cent of a cent a pound, and it is believed that this will be a more reasonable tax.

The Smith amendment also provides that the cotton exchange shall be regulated by a board of nine members, five of whom shall be farmers and four shall be planters.

The board shall have the power to make rules and regulations for the conduct of the cotton exchange, and it shall have the power to suspend or expel any member who violates the rules.

The board shall also have the power to fix the price of cotton, and it shall have the power to issue bonds to the amount of $1,000,000.

The board shall also have the power to issue bonds to the amount of $1,000,000.

Canny Set Refused To Pay Customs Duty On Holy Sabbath

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Because it was the Lord's day and his mother had taught him never to trade on the Sabbath, Angus K. Christopherson, of Dunfermline, Scotland, refused to pay customs duty today on a ship of wooden planks when customs officials who boarded the steamer on which he had just arrived from Glasgow asked that he settle.

"My mother taught me never to do the Lord's day," said Christopherson. "I cannot do it. I will not pay duty on the Sabbath. I would rather lose the goods than enter into financial transactions on the Sabbath day."

"The only duty you owe is to your mother," said the customs official. "If you do not pay duty, you will be fined."

"No," said Angus. "I will abide by my mother's teachings. I will return tomorrow with the ship. There is no ship in London but mine."

DR. MCCONNELL FLAYS MAYOR'S ATTITUDE

Either "Foolish or Incompetent" in Opposing Kissing Arrests, Says Pastor

Typing for the police, denouncing their action, calling Mayor Woodward either "foolish or incompetent," Dr. Lincoln McConnell delivered his initial sermon Sunday night at the Baptist Tabernacle, "Sowing the Wind and Reaping the Whirlwind" was his topic.

"A man in the position of Mayor Woodward, chief executive of a city as large as Atlanta, who would make the statements accredited to him in news papers must be a fool—either that or vainly too incompetent and ignorant to properly fill his position," said Dr. McConnell. "I was utterly astounded when I bought an Atlanta paper on a train coming into the city and read an interview from the mayor in which he declared himself as being against the policy of the police in arresting such couples as were appearing on the steps of the capitol some time ago."

"The couple arrested were given a fair trial in the recorder's court and were found for the offense. No person in the world could convince me they were guilty of no more than innocent osculation."

"Mr. Woodward and others have indulged in quite a little criticism of chief Beavers and his activities against such class of offenders. I am in favor of prosecuting this class of offenders. I want to go on record that way. Suppose it was your sister or your daughter caught in a compromising position with a man in a public place. Or, worse still, think of the commotion which might arise if the officer who saw such occurrences didn't do his duty in stopping it. It is far better that the police should get a little unpleasant notoriety than that the law should be violated by the men who daily tempt girls. If these men are left unmolested, they ruin their lives forever."

Editorialism also came in for denunciation at the hands of Dr. McConnell. "I notice a great change in the newspapers," said he. "When I was here before they were conservative in their attitude. They printed only straight, legitimate news. Now the position is reversed; they hunt the sensations."

Referring again to Atlanta's social and political status, Dr. McConnell declared that the time he spent on the local police force years ago had not been his judgment, but had given him an insight into local conditions which enabled him to talk intelligently and authoritatively on the subject he was discussing. Concluding, the minister said:

"The criticism of the police by the city officials can bring but one result. It means a reign of lawlessness in the city. I have been through many law and order campaigns recently. I have seen this condition before. The situation among city officials where the higher officials are arrayed against the police, the criminal class or the class with a tendency to criminality and wrong doing, has led them to talk intelligently and authoritatively on the subject he was discussing. Concluding, the minister said:

BURLESQUE WILL OPEN NEXT SATURDAY, SURE

Delay Is Made Necessary Through Failure of Contractors to Finish

The opening of the Columbia theater in Wall street as a burlesque house has been postponed from Monday night until next Saturday. This announcement was made Monday morning by the management of the White Way Musical Comedy company, of Cincinnati, which is to appear at the playhouse.

The delay was made necessary because of the fact that the remodeling of the structure will not be completed before the end of the week. It became necessary to enlarge the stage and otherwise change the interior of the building. It was thought that this work would be completed Monday but the contractors were unable to finish the task.

JOURNAL WANT AD Horoscope

SEPTEMBER 15.

People of this birthday, having conquered their lower nature and being temperate in eating and drinking may live a long life.

The governing sign of this birth-

date is "Virgo," meaning the birth-

date free of the earth.

The governing planet is Mercury, which gives powerful magnetic influence, activity of mind and body and when understood works for good to the individual.

Mercury means the "swift messenger of the gods," and imparts success to the person who chooses

a public career.

If you have articles for sale advertise them in The Journal Want

Ad. Business partnerships may be formed to advantage if found through a Journal Want Ad.

Some Want Ads are inserted free

in The Journal. For charge ads, ask that they be sent for, or telephone to Main 2000, or Atlanta 423.
